

POLICY ON PRESERVATION AND ARCHIVAL OF DOCUMENTS

In compliance of the Companies Act, 2013 and Regulation 9 of Chapter III of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulation, 2015 (“LODR”) Skyline Millars Ltd has approved and updated this policy for preservation of documents on 24th January, 2019 with immediate effect. This policy may be amended at any time, subject to the discretion of the Board.

1) Purpose and Scope:

This policy has been adopted by Skyline Millars Ltd to establish a framework needed for effective preservation, safe-keeping and maintenance of documents and records of Skyline Millars Ltd in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the LODR.

This Policy is further intended to provide guidance to the senior management, employees and personnel working in Skyline Millars Ltd and acting or carrying on operations on its behalf and is framed for the purpose of systematic identification, categorization, maintenance, review, retention and disposal of documents received or created in the course of business. The policy contains guidelines on how to identify documents that need to be maintained, how long certain documents should be retained, how and when those documents should be disposed of, if no longer needed and how the documents should be accessed and retrieved when they are needed.

2) Statutory Mandate:

Under the LODR, the Company has a strategic objective of ensuring that significant documents as set out below and more particularly in the Annexure (Documents) are safeguarded and preserved to ensure longevity of priority documents including in electronic form.

3) Classification of Documents to be preserved / retained:

Based on the recommendation of the management of the Company, the Board of Directors have classified the following documents to be retained and preserved (Documents):

Where there is a period for which a Document is required to be preserved as per Applicable Law, for the period required by Applicable Law. Where there is no such requirement as per Applicable Law, then for such period as the document pertains to a matter which is “current”. In case of any other Document, for such period, as a competent officer of the Company required to handle or deal with the Document takes a considered view about its relevance.

Documents that need to be preserved / retained permanently	Doc - 1
Documents that may be preserved / retained for a period of 8 years as specified under the Companies Act, 2013 or the LODR	Doc - 2
Documents to be preserved electronically and archived when necessary	Doc - 3
Documents that may be required by judicial proceedings and which may be destroyed after closure of the legal case	Doc - 4
Emails of all employees in the grade M3 (E6) and above for a period of 3 years	Doc - 5
Documents like budget papers, bank guarantees etc., which may be retained for less than 8 years	Doc - 6

4) Modes of preservation

- 1) The Documents may be preserved in physical form or electronic form.
- 2) The preservation of Documents should be such as to ensure that there is no tampering, alteration, destruction or anything which endangers the content, authenticity, utility or accessibility of the Documents, other than disposal of the Documents in accordance with this Policy.
- 3) The preserved Documents must be accessible at all reasonable times. Access shall be controlled by the respective departmental heads of Skyline Millars Ltd, so as to ensure integrity of the documents and prohibit unauthorized access.
- 4) The physical Documents preserved may be converted, whenever required or felt necessary, into electronic form to ensure ease in maintenance of Documents and efficient utilization of space. This may be done after obtaining prior approval of the respective departmental heads.

5) Custody

Subject to the discretion of the Board, the Documents relating to each and every department shall remain under the custody and overall supervision of their respective departmental heads of Skyline Millars Ltd, by whatever name called.

6) Disposal of Documents

1. A Document may be despoised only in the following circumstances:

- a) When it is no longer required to be preserved in accordance with Applicable law; or
- b) Upon the approval of the Board.

The authorized person, in whose custody the Documents are kept, shall maintain a record of all the documents in respect of Skyline Millars Ltd which have been disposed.

7) Principle of Responsibility of Employees for Preservation of Documents:

1. All the persons employed or engaged the Company shall be responsible for taking into account the potential impacts on preservation of the Documents in their work area and their decision to retain/preserve or destroy Documents pertaining to their area. Such policy bestowing responsibility on the Company's employees would immensely help company's litigation preparedness tool helping the Company's and Outside legal counsel to track down Documents to handle the legal cases.

2. The employees shall be supervised by the head of their respective department(s) who will ensure that the employees identify, classify and archive Documents in accordance with this policy.
3. In case of any doubts as to the appropriate classification, the employee shall refer the doubt to the head of his/her respective department. In case of ambiguity as to the classification, the head of the respective department may refer the matter to the Compliance Officer who will determine the classification of the relevant document.

8) Periodical Review of the Policy by Top Management:

The policy should be flexible and be easy to understand and be complied with by personnel employed and engaged by Skyline Millars Ltd at all levels. The Policy should be reviewed, from time to time and as and when the need for such review may arise, by the KMPs. provided that, the adoption of the revised policy by Skyline Millars Ltd shall be subject to its approval by the Board.

9) Administration:

The details of the Documents, along with the respective department of Skyline Millars Ltd responsible for maintenance and disposal for such Documents, have more particularly been described in Annexure for initial maintenance, retention and disposal schedule for physical and electronic records.

10) Suspension of Record Disposal in the event of Litigation or Claims:

In case the Company is served with any notice for request of Documents or any employee becomes aware of a governmental investigation or audit concerning Skyline Millars Ltd India or commencement of any litigation against the Company, such employee shall inform the Top Management and any further disposal of Documents shall be suspended until such time as the Top Management with the due advice from the legal counsel determine otherwise. The Top Management in such case shall inform all the employee by mail under "User list" of the need to retain the Documents and suspension of disposal of the same.

11) Disaster Preparedness:

Skyline Millars Ltd maintains a business continuity plan (BCP) designed to ensure safety of staff as well as members of the general public, safeguard the Documents and records and to enable a return to normal operating with minimal disruption. Detailed procedures for responding to an incident are part of the BCP.

In the event of major incident, the first priority is the safety of the people, followed by immediate action to rescue or prevent further damage to the records. Depending on the immediate threat, emergency response and recovery actions will take precedence over all other Company activities.

The Company has made appropriate provision for the backup of its digital collections, including the provision of offsite security copies. The backup copies are actively maintained to ensure their continued viability. The Company's BCP ensures that the digital collections and technical infrastructure required to manage and access them can be restored in the event of an emergency.
